September 2011

Dear OTNA Members!

I hope that the summertime was fun and relaxing for you and your family. Here's the latest information from the OTNA . . .

Our next OTNA meeting will be held Wednesday, September 21st, upstairs in the Bartlett Center - behind the Torrance Historical Society & Museum (see the enclosed flyer for details).

You're invited to come learn about the importance of flu vaccines for everyone and then share your thoughts about a proposed residential development over on Dominguez Street. This meeting is sponsored by a healthy member of downtown Torrance – Every Body's Pilates!

Every Body's Pilates is a local Pilates exercise studio over on Cravens Avenue. They said, "Your neighborhood Pilates studio for 6 years, now offering yoga, zumba and Booty Barre group exercise classes . . . FUNctional fitness for every body!"

Please mark your calendar: The OTNA will be sponsoring another Neighborhood Clean-up Day on Saturday, September 24th, from 9:00 AM - 11:00 AM. We will target Old Torrance (the downtown area) for clean-up, and also focus on the tracks beneath the Southern Pacific Railroad Bridge on Torrance Blvd. Water and a special treat will be provided. RSVP to Charles Payne at (310) 328-7549.

Good news! The Torrance Theatre Company has once again secured the intimate 50-seat setting of 1316 Cabrillo Avenue for their 2011-2012 Season. This venue is within walking distance from over a dozen great restaurants — many of whom will be offering Theatre-goers a dining discount on the date of each performance. For ticket information, visit: <http://torrancetheatrecompany.com> or call: 424.243.6882

We hope to see you at the OTNA meeting on Wednesday, September 21st. Come visit with neighbors over coffee and Torrance Bakery cookies at 7:00 PM. The meeting will begin at 7:30 PM, and will wrap-up by 9:00 PM. Please bring a friend and/or neighbor with you, as there is much to learn and important issues to discuss. All OTNA meetings are free and open to the public.

As always, we'll have drawings for prizes, too — maybe you'll go home a lucky winner!

Sincerely,

Todd Hays
OTNA President
